

THE HAZELBAKER NEWS

Newsletter - Update

1ST EDITION 61 WATERMAN AVE., COLDWATER, MI. 49036 (517)279-7875

Welcome to the first of many "HAZELBAKER NEWS" newsletters. The purpose is to update our families of new and useful information of our family tree. The newspaper, of the same name, is still available, but I have decided not to use the newspaper format any longer. There are five different editions of "THE HAZELBAKER NEWS" dated 1985 thru 1989. Please send $1.00 each for any copy you're missing, to the above address, thanks. If you have family tree information, obituaries, old photos, etc., please send to be published. Also, if you have some names of relatives who would like to be on our mailing list, please write to me with the information. Thanks to all the "cousins" who have helped me with the newspaper, by sending photos, information, articles, obituaries, and other data, that have helped trace our family tree. I hope you enjoy this first Hazelbaker update, and I hope to hear from you soon. - Randall S. Hazelbaker

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Blanche Hazelbaker

BATAVIA — Mrs. Blanche Hazelbaker, 93, formerly of North Street, and St. Petersburg, Fla., died at 8:05 a.m. Sunday (July 18, 1993), at Manor Oak Nursing Home, Warsaw.

Mrs. Hazelbaker was born May 6, 1900, in Belle Vernon, Pa., a daughter of the late John and Sarah Brindle Conaghan.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church of St. Petersburg, and a 20-year member of the Batavia Chapter No. 267 Order of the Eastern Star.

Her husband, Archie R. Hazelbaker, died in 1948.

Surviving are a daughter and son-in-law, Betty and James Klippel of Batavia; six grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

She was the mother of the late Calvin M. Hazelbaker.

Friends may call from 10 to 11 a.m. Wednesday at the H.E. Turner and Co. Funeral Home, where services will follow at 11 a.m. Burial will be in Grand View Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the First United Methodist Church of Batavia.

The Hazelbakers

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hazelbaker celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary June 7 with a family dinner at the Iron Skillet Restaurant in Indianapolis presented by their children.

Velma Hosier and Walter Hazelbaker were married by the Rev. Clarence Wilhelm at the Calvary Baptist parsonage in Noblesville on June 7, 1930.

The couple has three children: Kay Hiday of Noblesville, E.A. "Sonny" Hazelbaker of Anderson and William Hazelbaker of Noblesville. They have four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazelbaker are active members of the Prairie Baptist Church.

SHANNON AND SHAWNDA HAZELBAKER, Vici, Oklahoma, were nominated (with help) by their 1-1/2-year-old nephew, Zak. "They are always there to take care of him, are never too busy, and always give him whatever he wants. He enjoys every minute!"

Officer praised

EDITOR:

I wish to send my thanks to Bradenton Patrolman L.E. Hazlebaker. On March 3, three kids came in the pizza shop where I work and stole my wallet from my purse. I reported it as soon as it happened. Patrolman Hazlebaker took the report. I was able to get the kids to tell me what they did with the wallet. They had thrown it in a sewer ditch. Patrolman Hazlebaker got permission from his department head to go off duty and change clothes so he could, with the aid of a long stick and fish net, get my wallet out of the ditch.

I am very grateful to this man. He went out of his way to help me. Not many men would have gone through all that trouble. Again, thank you Patrolman Hazlebaker and the Bradenton Police Department.
