Letters to the Editor

Dear Randall:

Thanks for the copies of the "Hazelbaker News". My brother, sister, and children also said to send their thanks. I am sure the copies will be carefully cared for and kept for our future generations.

The sister of the husband of my youngest daughter (Nancy, lives in Boise, Idaho) is a Neo-Natal Nurse Practitioner and recently told my daughter that one of the preemie babies born at her hospital had the strangest last name "Hazelbaker. My daughter turned in profile and said "do you see my nose. Well it's a classic Hazelbaker nose".

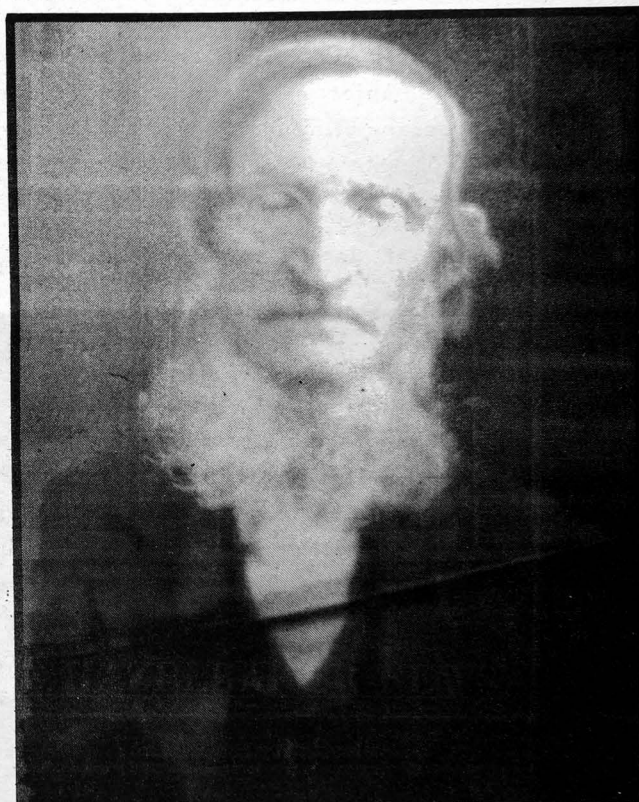

I have included several things, some of which we talked about:

1. The 1850 Perry Twp. Fayette Co. Pa. census showing Jacob Hazelbaker, age 50, born in Virginia; his wife Lucinda, age 31, born in Pa.; and a daughter Elizabeth Lynn, age 13, born in Pa. From the age, I believe this is the son of Peter and Elizabeth, as I have found Jacob's age listed anywhere from 1796 to 1800.
2. The 1860 Allen Twp. Washington Co. Pa. census showing Jacob Hazelbaker, age 42, born in Pa. and his wife and all of their children born in Pa.: Wife Martha J., age 31; and children Minerva L., age 12; Roxanna, age 10; Luella, age 9; Marvin, age 7; and Mary M., age 3. My research shows that this Jacob Hazelbaker was the son of George Hazelbaker and Matilda Dunlevy. So you were right. Sorry if I caused some confusion.

Also included are some pictures that you requested. The names and relationship are set out below and the pictures are numbered on the back of each picture:

(Picture no.1) my great grandfather William Hazelbaker: Born 30 Sep. 1830 in Pennsylvania. William and Sara Elizabeth Welsh wanted to marry but her parents objected and would not let her marry William. Subsequently, William married Rebecca Lawrowe 12 Feb. 1856 in Delaware County, Indiana. They had two children, Matilda born in 1857 and Christopher born in 1858. Rebecca died shortly thereafter in 1858. William met Sarah Elizabeth Welsh (my great grandmother) again and they eloped and were married 4 April 1861 in Muncie, Indiana. William and Sarah had the following children:

Note: William was drafted into the Union Army on 26 Sep 1864 at Richmond, Indiana and was assigned duty as a private in Company G. 9th Regiment, Indiana Volunteers. While serving at Indianapolis, Indiana in 1864, William suffered swelling in the right leg, right side, and right arm. William also injured his left eye at Knoxville, Tennessee in Oct. 1864 as a result of powder flash burns and cinders: he contracted chronic diarrhoea at Greenville, Tennessee in Apr. 1865; and scurvy in the left knee at Nashville, Tennessee in May 1865. William was mustered out of the Army on 20 June 1865 at Nashville, Tennessee. William's vision in both eyes deteriorated rapidly as a result of the powder flash burn and he ultimately became blind in both eyes. He received a pension of $12.00 a month that was raised to $20.00 a month at the time of his death.

- C. My grandfather, Samuel Adams Hazelbaker was born 25 Sep. 1866 in Indiana. "Sam" married Inis Izora Gobel (my grandmother) on 23 Dec. 1884. - H. George Washington Hazelbaker was born 20 March 1877 in Indiana. George married Ida Ethyl Lasley 29 June 1895. Ida died 24 April, 1924 and George died 23 May 1964. Both are buried in Vinson Cemetery, Summitville, Indiana. (picture no. 6)

William died on 8 May 1912 and is buried in Vinson Cemetery, Summitville, Indiana (picture no. 5). Sarah Elizabeth died 15 March 1919 and is buried in Vinson Cemetery, Summitville, Indiana, next to William.

Samuel Adams Hazelbaker (picture no. 6, taken about 1885 in his Republican Party hat) and Inis Izora Gobel (picture no. 7, taken about 1885), had the following children:
